New President, Other Officers for the Prince Rupert Labour Council

(PRINCE RUPERT) At its June 25, 2020 meeting the Prince Rupert Labour Council elected new officers, including president, secretary-treasurer, vice president, and trustee. The new president is Tom Kertes. The new secretary-treasurer is Piroska Potoranay. The new vice president is Tristen Wybou. The new trustee is Shelley Gladstone.

“The Prince Rupert Labour Council is committed to building community, supporting workers, and working together for justice and fairness for all people in our region,” said Tom Kertes. “I am proud to be part of such a committed and strong team of workers in our community.”

The Prince Rupert Labour Council provides a common voice for hundreds of union members in the North Coast region and works together for the benefit of all communities. It is the local organization of the Canadian Labour Congress, which represents 3.2 million unionized workers across Canada.
